

(11 1/2)

MacR: That could be his blessing

but it could also be the wine of his wrath. I would think it would fit into either interpretation. What's the significance of having the wine itself well-refined (11 3/4)

(12 1/4) MacR: I'm inclined to think it fits better with the blessing but I (12 1/4) that it is blessing.

Student (12 1/2)

MacR: Well, no you could get here a prophet, a continuation of events at the end of the world, couldn't you? Verse 6, the Lord overthrows his wicked enemies. Then, puts an end to them, and as (12 3/4)

Student: There's a definite (12 3/4) to express which side of the fence you can pick flowers on. That's your point?

MacR. Yes. (13) 7 is blank, 8 is blank. 5 is blank. (13 1/4)

Student: Well how about the suggestion that it's on this mountain, particularly with reference to the last of chapter 24, where the Lord (13 1/2) (several people talking)

MacR: (13 1/2) Well, but don't you think--this isn't after 24, aren't you going back again? Or are you?

student: Well, no, I see. 24 might well be just as a pre-sketch as a whole, a completed thing, and then he's going into detail in 25, how he's destroyed the city and he's done all these things.

MacR: Yes, that's entirely possible. Now some other question? That ~~was~~ somebody <sup>has</sup> ~~can~~ work on? Has something down for.

Student. 14 1/4): We were wondering about the next verse, verse 7, whether
