

Mr. Harris was talking about us establishing ~~again~~ the Temple and the sacrifice.

MacR: Yes, but we're not sure whether it is to be or not. That is a question on which we may clearer if we study further but I'm not at all sure as yet, if the Temple should be reestablished or are those passages simply (3 1/4)
I don't know.

But would the eating of a certain amount of meat and the raising of some animals (3 1/2) contrary to the picture of the removal of enmity among the animals and the destruction of one another. I mean does the removal of that require that also there be none of them slain by humans? I think the matter of the enmity among the animals is not simply the fact that Satan, or that frequently an animal is killed by another animal, but the (4) his constant fear fighting and hatred which is ~~an~~ inevitably involved in the situation. I think perhaps that's more important than the actual (4 1/4) so that I'm ~~not~~ not at all sure that--are you leaving us, Mr.

(s4 1/2)

stu: yes, sir--

MacR: yes, well, now any suggestions about assignments for next time.

stu: (4 3/4)

yes, what do you mean by the last part, 12, 4, 9?

MacR: (4 3/4)

stu: we do not meet next Monday, is that correct?

MacR: I thought we did meet then.

stu: In other words, we're meeting every Monday?

MacR: I thought it had been agreed that every Monday was to be met with the possible exception of the first Monday in May. I thought there was a strong probability
