

If you don't, you will have the sad experience in your life, as many fine men have had in this ~~last~~ last generation, of building up organizations with tremendous effort and sacrifice on their part to advance the Word of God, and then finding that those organizations had been turned into the opposite purpose to that which they had founded.

I know of the Student Volunteer movement, I think, Robert Wilder ~~was~~ was one of the great organizers, I think, of the movement, part of the Student Christian movement. An organization which; Wilder was a fine Christian man, wonderful devotional life, great loyalty to Christ, and this organization led many all over this country into an interest in serving the Lord in foreign lands. And then, Wilder got along to middle age and he got a little money, and he retired and went over to Norway, the land of ~~his~~ his ancestors, and he lived there a few ~~years~~ years. And he continued to ~~write~~ write fine devotional books. But he didn't have much of a close touch with the organization. And then after a few years he heard of a great convention they were to have in this country, and he came back, and he visited it, and he went and they gave him a place, a very minor place, ~~on~~ on the program/ And it seemed strange, after all he had done in starting it, why didn't they give him a major place. But they gave him a very minor place. And he got there and he began to hear people speaking and they were tearing ~~down~~ down everything that he ~~believed~~ believed, they were advancing simply a social ~~gospel~~ gospel, advocating advancing this social gospel all over the world. Denying the truth of Scripture, denying the deity of Christ, and when he got up to give his little talk on the ~~minor~~ minor point, he had on the program, it just seemed utterly out of place, because everything he said seemed silly in relation to ~~what~~ what the other people had said. And what the others ~~said~~ said seemed wicked in comparison to him. And the leadership was very careful ~~not~~ not to give him a chance to make a ~~strong~~ strong protest. They praised him, the wonderful man who meant so much to the organization, ~~spoke~~ spoke very highly of him, to try to shunt him off so ~~he~~ wouldn't have a chance to say anything. Well now, if he had had
