

after Christ, disagreed with him rather strongly, and he gave in to Irenaeus on certain points. You see, Irenaeus in no way expressed himself as subject to him, but he urged him not to do the things that he was trying to do. Now that is the second thing.

Now, the third thing is, that the bishop of Rome, 175 years ~~approximately~~<sup>time</sup> approximately after the ~~death of Christ~~ of Christ, the bishop of Rome, the two bishops of Rome right at that time, Callistus and Dulcimus, that they were accused of falling into rather serious heresy, or at least of giving support to it. And Callistus was accused of great wickedness in his life. Whether these accusations are true or false we cannot prove today, but the accusations were made, and they were made by a man who is recognized as one of the greatest saints of the Roman Church, and who is called in Roman Catholic historians one of the ~~g~~ two greatest writers of the third century. (end of record)

Record 120

In the middle of the third century, who was recognized by everybody as the most important writer and administrator in the church at that particular time. Cyprian strongly rebuked the bishop of Rome, Stephen for the things that Stephen was claiming, strongly rebuked him, and he ~~refused~~ refused to admit it, and the Roman church recognized Cyprian as the ~~a~~ same and gives him praise for his personal character and ability, far beyond what they give to any pope of the first three centuries.

Well, now, those are four very important facts which we stressed, each of them at great length last term. And yesterday I reviewed them briefly, and the reason that I am reviewing them now is that I am ~~a~~ anxious that you know them, not simply to pass an examination, but so that thirty years from now, when matters arrive wherever in the world you are ~~are~~ serving the Lord, in ~~in~~ connection with it is vital to know these facts, you will know them. And if you do not remember the precise details about them, it will be easy for you to look them up, if you remember as much about them as I mention now.

Now, I notice several hands raised, here, was there anything vital that should be covered now? (question) Zosimus and Callistus. Zosimus is not as nearly of great importance in this particular ~~a~~ connection as Callistus.
