

Heb. Exegesis E1

... ~~H~~ Yodh, he, waw, he, is the unpronounced name of God. Now, it must have come... Hezekiah, Jehoiakim... just how they pronounced their names... After all, we do not know how they were pronounced. Because pronounciation changes. But whatever ~~it~~ they pronounced it, ~~it~~ represented the name of God. ^{It is a proper name.} /Then, later, ... consequently, this is what they call a permanent Qere, that is, the Massorettes, when they found something in the text, they pronounced differently, they ordinarily put the word/prounced in the footnote in the bottom, they put a vowel and they would footnote ~~them~~ it. Now, ^{particular} in this/case, they do not bother to put it, because everybody understands it. That they pronounce this as the Lord, and ^{they put} the vowel as ... but in this case, you do not have the vowel. And this is one of the one tenths/ of the cases where instead of putting a vowel ADONAY, since you have got the word ADONAY ... they do not say ADONAY, ADONAY, though they put the vowels ~~with~~ elohim. So, these ~~p~~ vowels stand for elohim. So, they translate the word the Lord God. And that is the way ... the Lord God... that is the way the English version and ... if it is/the Lord God... God is either Lord or God is in caps. The King James Version gives ... You see how the vowels of ... are differnt from what you ordinarily see. They represent the vowel, elohim.../ Ordinarily it would be... Continue Mr. ?... And they, if they will hear. if they will go back... ^a in other words, holding back is ~~the~~ possibility. They are going to immediately accept what you are going to say, =and will be happy about it. They ~~will~~ will be rebellious... maybe they ~~won't~~ won't. ~~maybe they~~ Maybe they won't. Maybe they will.. If they don't, it is not necessarily your fault. Becasue they are rebellious anyhow. Whether they hear or if they refuse to hear,
