

wilderness where there was~~n~~ no food and knowing that God was going to supply miraculously. We see his face when God told ~~h~~ him to go up to Zerephaz where he landed, and tell the widow there that God ordered her to take care of him. We see his faith ~~riat~~ raising the widow's child, his faith in coming back after the drought proceeded to the point where the whole nation was stirred and was ready to listen to anything that promised the ~~I~~ relief. We see his faith as he spoke with Obadiah and rebuked the lesser faith of Obadiah and gave him his absolute promise that he would spend before Ahab. The faith of Elijah comes out passage after passage through these chapters, and it is one of the great qualities and yet as so often is the case at this very point of his greatness the time came when he failed and he failed and was miserable.

Another that we see

The great ~~quqti~~ quality/about Elijah is his courage, his fearlessness.

This is certainly brought out in the way that he spoke. Ahab, when he told the terrible ~~parable---~~ that the drought was ahead... even more when he returned to Ahab, though Ahab had been seeking through all the country to find him, and he comes and he stands right before him, and declares God's truth and says, I have not troubled the Israel ~~and-~~ but thou and thy father's house have forsaken the commandments of Jehovah and thou hast followed the Baalim)(I Kings 18:18). We see here the courage as well as his faith as he marks the prophets of Baal, and tells them. Perhaps Baal is away on his journey, maybe he is ~~als sl-~~ asleep. Yell ~~thou;~~ or perhaps ye can reach him. What courage one man standing alone against many prophets of Baal. These prophets who have the queen supporting them so strongly. These prophets who are , these false prophets who are ... position in the land, Elijah stands alone against them seemingly with no fear whatever. ~~Wenotice-~~ noticed the courage of Elijah similarly in other cases. In chapter 21 we read that they bought a vineyard, and we find Elijah coming and standing directly before the king and telling ~~of~~ him of the terrible fate that is ahead for him and for his whole
