

OUTLINE OF CONTENTS

The book divides naturally into four main sections: the preparation for the march through the wilderness (i.1-x.10), the journey from Sinai to the plains of Moab (x.11-xxii.1), the Balaam incident (xxii.2-xxv.18) and the preparations for entrance into Canaan (xxvi.1-xxxvi.13).

PREPARATION FOR THE WILDERNESS JOURNEY. i.1-x.10

- I. The Men of War Numbered and Positions Assigned For the March. i.1-ii.34
- II. The Levites Numbered and their Duties Described. iii.1-iv.49
- III. Removal of Uncleaness and Defilement from the Camp. v.1-31
- IV. A Special Type of Separation--The Nazarite Vow. vi.1-21
- V. Arrangements for the Religious Life of the Camp. vi.22-ix.14
- VI. The Divine Provision for Direction and Guidance. ix.15-x.10

FROM SINAI TO THE PLAINS OF MOAB. x.11-xxii.1

- VII. The First aStage of the Journey. x.11-36
- VIII. Rebellion and Disaffection. xi.1-xii.16
- IX. The Crisis at Kadesh-Barnea. xiii.1-xiv.45
- X. Laws After the Crisis. xv.1-41
- XI. The Great Rebellion of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. xvi.1-50
- XII. The Aftermath of the Rebellion. xvii.1-xix.22
- XIII. Incidents on the Way to the Plains of Moab. xx.1-xxii.1

THE BALAAM INCIDENT. xxii.2-xxv.18

- XIV. The Summoning of Balaam. xxii.2-40
- XV. The Prophecies of Balaam. xxii.41-xxiv.24
- XVI. The Aftermath of the Balaam Incident. xxiv.25-xxv.18