

straight narrative or straight discussion, we have other...to make up for this lack. That is a very good question. He was trying to make a good impression on Jehosphat ~~Jehosphat~~ Jehosphat is an earnest believer in God, who thinks for political reasons ~~he has~~ it is right for him to cooperate with Ahaz. He is wrong, but nevertheless he thinks he can be true to ~~his god~~ God and at the same time in political conditions work with Ahaz. So Ahaz says, Let's go up and conquer Ramoth Gilead, the political measure and Jehosphat knows that in his heart he should work with Ahaz but nevertheless he thinks perhaps in this political area, ~~he could~~ by cooperating with Ahaz but he says I would like to know what the Lord's will is. Ahaz calls in the prophet and ~~all say~~ the prophets all unitedly say God up...Something in it doesn't satisfy Jehosphat. ...~~He really wanted to know what~~.. Jehosphat said Isn't there another one we can ask, showing that he felt that a lot of these ~~were~~ were just ~~to~~ time-serving men..and he really wanted to know ....

So he said, Is there another one we can ask to find out what the Lord's will really is, and Ahab ~~says~~ says Yes there is another one but he says I don't like him, because he never prophesies anything good about me, he ~~is~~ always says What is bad, and Jehosphat ~~assaid~~ said, Don't prejudge him that way, Let's ~~here~~ hear what he says. Let not the king say so. So they called in Micaiah and when they got Micaiah there and ...M. ~~says~~ said exactly what the King of Israel wanted him to say. So ...and didn't mean a ~~one~~ word of it. Suppose you got a man ~~said~~ in and you said Now, you tell us the truth about this matter ...and the man said...Do you want the ~~real~~ truth or do you want ...He makes a statement that sounds like an agreement but the whole tone of it sounds like ...and M. ~~said~~ but instead of that M.
