

Last year I about decided on O.T. — as a professor of faith in God, who will not allow His word to fail; and as a sacrifice, going into the ~~more~~ ~~difficult and less rewarding field,~~ ~~young field~~ that is more arduous and difficult, secures less attention and will give less reward of money or fame, but that is equally necessary. Everything thought then held equally today. I must devote myself to master the Old Testament there is a real need. And God will not let His Word fail. There remarks in this world may be slight, but, O Lord, if I trust Thee fully, Thou wilt take care of me. So then I commit my life
