

study of the Old Testament, "here am I, send me". "To the law, and to the testimony". "What hath God said?" "The Lord hath spoken, who can but prophesy?" To the study of Thy Old Testament, Most Holy God, I do commit my soul.

For wasted time, for selfish and worldly-wise planning, for human pride and jealousy, for carnal greed, for slothfulness in Thy service, I confess my desert of Thy disfavor. I have sinned. I sin constantly against Thee, O Lord. Wash me in the blood of Thy Son, Cleanse me in the healing fountain which Thou hast prepared. Make His Life flow through my veins. Make me die to all that is earthly. May I be crucified with Christ, that I may rise with Him, and that He may live His life through me.
