

us the students who should profit by the work here, that He will keep enlarging and increasing the faculty, to fit the needs. Most of all we pray that God will keep us right in the center of His will, and not permit us to turn aside to the right hand or to the left. If we keep directly in line with His purposes, we know that there is no limit to what He may accomplish through us.