

to the lesser things, to the minor things and even the matters of secondary importance, don't you follow us, follow the Word of God wherever because it

We believe that we are a new movement that has just started.

We believe we are a continuation of the Christian tradition, the tradition of putting the Word of God and making all human, all human effort a means of trying to advance that Word, something to be as long as it stands true

Now some of our faculty members, four or five years ago I remember them saying, "We don't have the students in our student body We don't have We put too much stress on this thing of following the Word ~~AND~~ as you read it instead of

Well I

It's more pleasant to have this wonderful But I've seen this before. I don't like it. I don't like it. I loyalty to the Word and that's A testimony to the Word
