

not, however, at present searching them out, but taking this time only when students come and specifically ask for it.

Please pray that the Lord will give him wisdom in order to use his time to the best advantage; that He will give him wisdom in dealing with the many problems that come day by day in connection with Seminary administration and policy, some of which are very important for the immediate situation; others of which, if decided wrongly, would not affect immediate conditions at all, but would be disastrous two or three years from now if not decided correctly now. Please pray also ~~that~~ that the Lord will give him wisdom and fluency in writing, and ability to see all the aspects of the various problems with which he is grappling in order to get them written in permanent form.
