

in a frame of mind where he may receive a mystic experience. They differentiate between the Bible and the "Word of God" and consider ^{no Biblical message} ~~nothing~~ to be the "Word of God" unless it has actually produced an experience in the man using the term. ~~Thus~~ it is one of the most subtle methods ever forged by Satan to attack Christianity, and it becomes more vital than ever that Christians examine the solid foundation of the Bible which God has given them and realize that ~~not merely isolated sections but~~ every part of it is God's Word for the foundation of the belief and experience of His people. This, which is the central theme of Dr. Wilson's book, is as timely today as when it was written.

Christianity accept the entire Bible as the Word of God, and seeks to find His message in every page. Barthianism builds on a careful human experience, and places Scripture in a secondary position of only partial validity. Its adherents have no difficulty in accepting destructive theories ~~denying~~ which deny the ^{authenticity} ~~validity~~ of extensive passages of both Old and New Testament. Thus Barthianism is
