

striking differences like this one, between them, which often cause confusion or hilarity when one spends a time in the other country and gives one considerable sympathy for those who come here from Germany.)

Arriving in Phila^o I found that the Wilsons were glad to have me stay with them in their apartment until I should find quarters of my own. Dr. Allis's father had purchased houses in various parts of Phila^o and one of them was at 1528 Pine Street, about a block and a half from the place where the Wilson's had rented an apartment. This building was being had been arranged by the new faculty to be headquarters for the new seminary. There was a r There were two rooms on the third floor that had made an apartment for Mr. and Mrs. Stonehouse and ~~there~~ there was another room on the third floor that they had set aside as a place to live. It was Wednesday when I reached there, school had been going for ten days. I visited the Dr. Wilson said I need not start teaching until the next Monday. I visited the Beginning Hebrew class that he was teaching on those two days that he was teaching, and then took it over myself on Monday.

For many years Dr. Allis had been teaching Beginning Hebrew ~~BBNM~~ ~~2. a~~ ~~11. / . / . / OzA~~ Dr. Allis was now professor of OT^o ~~Interpretation~~ Interpretation at the new seminary, a position that had been held by Dr. Davis at Princeton until Dr. Davis' death a year three years earlier, and since that time by visiting professors there.

Now I found myself in the middle of a disagreement. Dr. Wilson thought I should look ~~xxxxxx~~ ~~xxxxxx~~ around for an apartment for myself. Dr. Allis thought I should live in the room in the seminary building, as the Stonehouses were doing.

Dr. Wilson strongly urged against it. He had had observed some unfortunate experiences, experiences, particularly during his time of teaching at Western Theological Seminary before he was called to Princeton Seminary many years before. He said I should not take a room in the house where Mrs. Stonehouse would be living. I mentioned this to Dr. Allis and he stated that Mrs. Stonehouse had been pregnant already for a couple of months so that there was no reason why I should not live in the house where she was at all. When I mentioned this to Dr. Wilson he was