

that he was going to drive Dr. Allis to San Fernando, about twenty miles from LA°, and that I should go there and meet him and bring him into town. This was, as far as I know, the first time I had ever heard of Dr. Allis. Paul stated that he had never had much use for Dr. A-llis, but that now that he had become acquainted with him and was him, he was very much ashamed of his previous attitude. I drove to San Fernando and found Dr. Allis waiting there. We drove back to LA° and he told me that Dr. Clarence ~~W. (1901)~~ Macartney, pastor of the Arch Street Church in Philadelphia, and a ~~very~~ very close friend of Dr. Allis, and that year moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian in the U.S.A., was coming down from San Francisco in the train and he would like to meet him and go into the High Sierras. high ~~Sierras~~ Sierras. The train from San F° would come to Mojave in the desert, where a branch could go north up to the Sierras. This would leave Mojave about an hour There was a train (nc) from Los A° ~~that~~ that would go up that way A train from Los A° that would go up that way would leave Mojave about a hour before the train from San F° would get there. The train coming south from SanF° to Los A° would go through Mojave, as would the train going north from Los A° to Owens Valley. The two tracks diverged at Mojave. Dr. Macartney asked them to hold the train from Los A° for an hour until the train from San F° would get there, but was told that this was too long to hold it for one person, so he came on to Los A°. Frank Nelson and I ~~took~~ took the two of them to the San Jacinto mountains for a couple of days and had a very interesting time. Thus I became ~~acquainted~~ acquainted ~~with~~ with both Dr. Allis and Dr. Macartney at that time.

At There was ~~an~~ an important football game at around Thanksgiving Day time and Dr. Allis invited me to be his guest at the football game. On the way I thought I would pay him a compliment on his teaching, so I said, that I appreciated the very clear way ~~in~~ in which he presented the Hebrew material, that he made it so plain and clear in class that it took only about twenty minutes studying for each class. He did not take this as a compliment at all, but remarked, "Oh, are you not interested in getting into the Aleph Division?" There were about 70 in the class at the beginning of the year. AT-Thanksgiving time an examination would be given and about a dozen would
