

salvations and had a spiritual experience, the effects of which have never left him. He then started to read the Bible and read it extensively. I do not recall whether this was before or after he went to college. He went to Dickinson ~~College~~ College in Carlisle. ~~It was~~ It was very interesting as we talked with them to hear that Mrs. Murphy's background ~~was similar~~ and experience were somewhat similar to that of Mr. Murphy, though she did not say much about any ~~details~~ details. She made some very good paintings, and she had a photograph of some of them that she showed us. She is now working for a jeweler and therefore taking some interest in gems, and before they left Grace got her to look at a couple of rings that she had and give a judgment on them.
