

about tis written 400 years before so he said I will just get my back scraped so he went forth through the Syrian line down to the northern edge of the desert paved his way across the desert over into Babylonia He came down there to Babylonia and he make a friendship with one of the priests in the temple and he gave him access to these thousands of tablests there in the library such as Prof. has in the British museum. He studied those tablets and he worked vigorously. He worked not only not in dollars as in our generation. When he got the facts ~~he made-~~ ~~up-a-story~~ collected he said now I can He sat down and made up t is wonderful story of how God delt with people 400 years before in order to infer When he finished it he made his way all along the edge of the desert and then he smuggled his way through the Syrian army again and came back to the little group of Jews and gave them the book to encourage them to fight . It surely is/what ^{that Daniel simply wrote down} ~~happened.~~ Now I don't say that every historical problem ~~can-be-~~ in Daniel or in can be answered as proof of at present. But a great many can and rega ding the others we have a clue (4 $\frac{1}{2}$) After all Professor Dick Wilson made the statemnt in 1930 that every historical difficulty of the O. T. he got a 29 out of 30 had been solved by new evidence that came to us during the ~~period-~~ those 30 years. came to light. This was the statement helpful to all and this was proof . But now I want to take up the second of the three phases I wanted to cover this afternoon. But I want to take up the second which is different from the first and in a way more striking That is a second method of approach. These are notices from archeology to show that the scripture is actual that its historical state- ents are true. Now I want to call your attention to a type of w ich will show more than that. Which shows ~~whether~~ not merely whether they are true or can be dependabel but that . That there was an intelligence madein these statements which new facts that no human being could possibly have known. And to introduce that subject, I would like
