

Sermon May 2, 1948 P. M. 3

world, but his time is short and your end will be , if you align yourself with him. If you look for freedom from the misery of this world, if you look for salvation for eternity, if you prefer not to have a place with Satan in the , align yourself with Christ, look to Him to be saved through His blood, to Him who on Galvary's cross died for your sins and mine that whosoever believeth on Him might not perish but have eternal life and in Him you can find salvation from all the miseries of this earth, in Him you can find the answer to all your questions, in Him you can find a part in that glorious time to come when this world will fully be God's, when we can say wholeheartedly as we can now only say with reservations that this is God's world. Let us pray.

Oh, God, our Father, we thank thee that thou art all powerful. Thou dost permit Satan tremendous power, thou dost permit him to be the prince of this world, thou hast established the curse and we suffer from it, oh Lord, God, how we suffer from the curse upon our bodies, from the curse upon the creation, curse from the/that is here. How we suffer from the subtleties of Satan, from his devices which sometimes seem to deceive the very elect. Oh, our God, help us to say, "Who will be on the Lord's side. Who will stand with Christ?" Oh, our God, help us to

Oh, our God, we pray in the time that remains, perhaps as Professor Toynby thinks, it may be only three to five years, but whatever the time may be, before the end of this age, oh, our God help us to witness for the Lord Jesus to lead souls into the knowledge of salvation. We ask it in the Saviour's name. Amen.
