

"But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them."

Admon
It is useless to try to fight against God. Only misery can result. Man in a state of rebellion against God is hopelessly ruined. Only by unconditional surrender can he avoid utter disaster.

The Bible has the answer to this problem, which faces every human being. God has provided a means of redemption. He has sent His unique ^{own} Son, to be the propitiation for the sins of all who will believe on Him- of all who take Him as Savior and Lord.

Are you living in defiance of God? Are you omitting from your planning this most vital of all factors? Or have you received a new life through Jesus Christ? Are you one who knows and loves God, and receives comfort and blessing from His Word? "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it."
