

We have thus in the fulfillment of this prediction a remarkable evidence given to Deborah and to the people there, that Deborah was not merely a wise leader with clever political insight and sagacity, but that she was actually a prophet<sup>ess</sup>, that is, one who spoke as the mouthpiece of God and<sup>who</sup> was used as his instrument in showing how he would deliver his own people.