

first three of Sachau's papyri).

These booklets are nos. 22/23 and 32 in Lietzmann's Kleine Texte f. theologische Vorlesungen u. Übungen.

A. Ungnad,
Aramäische Papyrus aus Elephantine. Leipzig, 1911 (covering Sachau's publication).

For the Aramaic docket, see

A. T. Clay,
Aramaic indorsements on the documents of the Mirasu Sons, in William R. Harper Memorial Volume. 1, 285.

For the ZKR inscription, from Syria (ca. 800 B.C.), see

Pognan,
Inscriptions semitiques de la Syrie. Paris, 1907, No. 86.

The Sardis bilingual and the early Indian inscription have been referred to above.

A lengthy potsherd text of Assurbanipal's reign has lately been published by

Lidzbarski,
Altaramäische Urkunden aus Assur. 38, Wissenach, Veröffentlichung D. DOG. 1921.

Also Jensen,
Aramäische Inschriften aus Hatra. MDOG, July, 1920.