

5/3/73

Chapel

Judging

- 1-1 Local newspaper in N. Michigan carried articles by those criticizing Bible for verbal contradictions.
- 1-5 Words are areas of thought
- 1-6 Faith as used by Paul and by James
- 2-3 Mat. 7:1 with 7:15
- 2-6 Harm of harmful criticism
- 3-1 Prejudging a person
- 3-5 Often find that the things that irritate us in others are faults of our own.
- 4-1 Christian leader who refused to give a straight out answer about a liberal lest harm be done to the church, and the liberal ruined the church.
- 4-8 Learn to judge between viable alternatives. Don't judge between the person or situation and perfection.
- 5-1 College president who was idly criticized by minister on railroad platform
- 6-1 Not to underestimate our abilities
- 6-7 Story of man who felt unfit for temporary handling of a job, but when a permanent replacement was obtained he was unwilling to step out of the job because he was one of two men in world capable of doing it.
- 8-4 Fellow who came into an organization and tried to make helpful changes on matters of secondary importance, made a big stand on them and utterly failed, then went into secular work.
- 9-5 Folly of having an electoral college
- 11-2 Interest only in having Christ glorified.
- 11-4 Douglas Johnson's work in London and his Inter Varsity of Christian Unions & he did not even have his name on the door.
- 13 John the Baptist - "He must increase, I decrease."