

to think of it but I didn't. It was Oliver Kehrlein who was in charge of the Sierra Club trip that Grace and I were on who; ~~he~~ told me of a Roman Catholic scholar, or someone connected with one of their institutions, who had told him that in 1946 he had gone over there, and with $15,000 you could get what would take tens of thousands to purchase under normal circumstances. I do not have figures here as to how much I actually spent over there for books; it certainly was not over $5,000 or $6,000, but I probably got books that would have taken $¹⁵5,000 or $20,000, ~~or~~ to get under ordinary circumstances, and $30,000 to have purchased from ~~XXXXXXXX~~ Kregel.

It was just after these plans were all complete that I received a letter from Harold Ockenga. In this letter he told me that ~~they were~~ Fuller was planning to start a theological seminary. Perhaps I should mention that a or two before that I had heard that Fuller was going to establish a training school for evangelists, that this was the ~~w~~ sort of institution he was planning to start. His son was now ready to go to seminary and probably was to have a vital part in establishing this training school, so his son went to Princeton Seminary. Art Glasser told me how disgusted Dan Fuller was with what he got in Princeton Sem^o. He said that he got ~~XXXX~~ reached the point after he had been there 3/4's of the year where he tried to pay as little attention as possible to what was being given in the classes, and simply devoted himself to memorizing Scripture. HE said that ~~Mr. Fuller~~ Dr. Fuller visited his son ~~there~~ there and did not go near the president of the institution. He did not wish even to have any contact with him. And the president was very upset when he heard later that Dr. Fuller had been there and had not come to see him at all. Art Glasser told me that he had said to Fuller that the evangelicals would be very much upset at his sending his son to Princeton Sem^o. Of course this was quite a few years after the reorganization of Pr^o. Actually his son, after one year in PRinceton, then went to the newly-established Fuller Seminary, finished his course there, and then studied in Europe.

This letter from Ockenga said that Dr. Fuller was going to establish a theological seminary which was to have the very highest scholarly standing and that Ockenga was to have charge of all arrangements and plans, and that he was inviting (I forget exactly who
