

O, that we might have a new trend in theology, a trend of standing on the Word of God. Getting all the scholarship we can, all the study, all the careful investigation but seeing how it all points in the direction of the truth as revealed in the Word which is our only source of knowledge in this sphere. O, that we could draw a clear line of separation between those who are following a will of the wisp of human ideas and human speculation, and those who are saying, "Thus saith the Lord," and seeking to put God's Word into effect in their lives and in His ~~teaching~~ preaching. O, that the Lord would pour out His Spirit upon us and allow us to go out with this message in such a way that if our Lord tarries, there would be another great, true Holy Spirit revival like the great ones that have been in the past. And there may be, who knows. The Lord Jesus Christ may come back tomorrow, I believe, pray God that He may. But perhaps we have another period of a few decades while He tarries. And if so, if we are true to Him, He might pour out His Spirit upon us if we stand on His Word and stand on the true orthodox theology, the Fundamentalist theology, the theology of salvation through the death of Jesus Christ, Who died that whosoever believeth on Him might not perish but have eternal life. O, may God give us a resurgence of true, evangelical theology.
