

- 68 Hos. 11:3 Preston's Pocket History of the Revolutionary War
Attitude of debunking the leaders then as worthless people
69 How the British forgot to thank God for victory at Dunkirk
- 70 Hos. 13:4 Methodology in studying this book. Find the ideas that are stressed
72 The matter of students having full time pastorates
The best students should not have pastorates in seminary
Student at Princeton who was not spending sufficient time getting the material while pastoring a church and later denied the doctrines of Christianity
73 Purpose of a seminary education: to face problems and see their implications.
Hos 13:4 Means more than stating a monotheistic creed and knowing God exists
- 74 Hos. 13:5
14:9 To know these things takes effort on our part
- 75 Hos. 11:1 Can any v. in OT that says something similar to a NT fact be applied to it tho it has no relation at all?
Is talking about Israel and NT applies it to Christ
76 Issue of "double fulfillment"
77 Is this v. talking about Christ rather than about Israel?
Does not say "I have called ~~my son out of Egypt~~ Israel out of Egypt but "my son". Israel not called God's son here tho does in Exodus.
- 78 Peter's use of Ps. 16 at Pentecost
79 Mat. 2:23 Two interpretations
1) Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?
2) He is the Branch so appropriate he should go to a town called Nazareth
- 80 Meaning of "fulfilled". Not just to fulfill a prediction
81 Hos. 11:1 Interp. summarized
Isa 7:14 Meaning of Immanuel
Mat. 2:23 Meaning of "he shall be called"
- 82 Advice: when someone asks you a question, look it up first before you answer it.
Using Mr. Widner as an illustration. Not a tight temporal connection necessarily.
- 83 Can't take anything you want in the OT and apply it to Christ
Mat. 2:23 Only similarity is the geography
"My son" refers to Christ (not to Israel) and means that blessings have come to Israel thru Christ
- 85 Joel Beginning Joel
86 Date of Joel. Arrangement in the Canon
88 Absence of historical allusions in Joel to set date
89 The locusts. Literal or armies?
90 Jerome's interpretation of the locusts
Is the whole book dealing with the day of the Lord?
91 If go to a thing with open mind, like sieve, everything is liable to go thru and nothing stop there!
