

III. A recommended approach to systematic theology

- A. Seek a truly objective attitude
- B. Recognize the incompleteness of our knowledge
- C. Realize the true meaning of inerrancy
- D. Approach every subject with three questions rather than two
- E. Consider the relation to temporary situations
- F. Remember that "all scripture...is profitable for doctrine"
- G. Approach views of all human beings as sources for questions, not answers