

- 15/1-4 , ch. 1-39
- 15/5-10 ch. 40-56
- 16/1-4 51:22,23 Oppression and deliverance
- 16/5-10 44:26 Critics say: Destruction of Jerusalem already past
- 51:3,9 Deliverance and Comfort
- 17 The Assyrian Conquest; Manasseh
- 17a The Authorship of Isaiah ; N.T. attests to its Isaiahic authorship
- 17b /1-3 " "
- 17b/4-7 Subjection to the Babylonians; not to the Assyrians
- 17b/8-10 Cyrus
- 17c/1-3 Cyrus
- 17c/4-8 Peculiarities of this section: Starts not with rebukes, but with comforts which presupposes an exile ahead....
- 17c/9-10 Destruction of Jerusalem; not Assyria but Babylon that is ....
- 17d/1-2 The Babylonian exile....
- 17d/3-10 D. The Problem of Interpretation of Isaiah's book of consolation.
Christ or the Servant of Israel centered interpretation? Or Israel and the exile centered interpretation?
- 17e/ " " " " "
Christian vs. Jewish or Exile vs. Distance.....
- 18 E. The Symphonic structure
- 19/1-10 " " " , Theme: Comfort
- 20/3-10 The second theme: God's power
- 21 /4-5 The third theme: God's greatness and the futility of idol worship
- 21/6-10 The themes elaborated
- 22/1-5 The third theme: God's predictive power: His omniscience
- 22/6-8 The interrelation of the themes