

7. Efforts of Mary, 1561-1567

8. Failure of Mary

VI. The Seventeenth Century

A. Great Britain in first third of the 17th century

1. England at end of Elizabeth's reign

2. Accession of James Stuart

a. James VI = James I, 1603-1625

b. The Millenary Petition

c. The Hampton Court Conference

d. Increased severity against Puritans

e. Decision to make a new Bible translation

3. The King James Version of the Bible

a. Reasons for its excellence

(1) Selection of scholars

(2) Background of a century of study of the original Hebrew and Greek

(3) Background of 80 yrs. of effort at translation the Bible into English

4. Result of James' treatment of the Puritans

5. The Puritan migration

6. England under James I and Charles I

B. Events on the Continent

1. Beginning of Arminianism

a. Herman (= Arminius), 1560-1609 [Du. theol.]

b. Controversy in Holland

c. Synod of Dort (Dordrecht)

d. The Five Points

2. Thirty Years' War

3. Destruction of the Huguenots

4. The Jansenist controversy

C. Great Britain from 1630 to 1660

1. Attitude of Charles I, 1625-1649